ON THE LOCAL MARKETS

ON PRODUCE MARKET

The wholesale produce dealers had another dull day. The receipts were small and the demand was light, except for fruits. This is the season when everybody wants fruit, but the weather is so hot and the taste of the people so fickle the dealers are afraid to stock up. For instance, the banana shippers were nuwllling to risk large lots to Richmond in the hot weather, and this full was scarcer yesterday. Of course, figures were a little stiffer in face of the active demand. Oranges and lemons are standard, and are always in demand in this season of mint juleps. The same may be said of pine-apples. These fruits are maintaining outside figures.

Watermelons and canteloupes are in good supply, and the demand, though not urgent, is sufficient to keep the figures fairly well up. Melons are figures are a little scarcer and figures are stiffer. Eggs are somewhat of figures son, and they sell down to figures are stiffer. Eggs are somewhat of the oracle of the year cents in crate lots. Vegetables to the Cary Street block.

NEW WHEAT COMES

The Grain Exchange had short summer hours yesterday. The receipts were shown on 'clange. The market was firm at former quotations. The amount of the best of order. Mr. Warner Moore was the receipt figures are altitle scarcer and figures are stiffer. Eggs are somewhat of the order of the product of season, and they sell down to figures are stiffer. Eggs are somewhat of gures are stiffer. Eggs are somewhat of the scarcer and figures are stiffer. Eggs are somewhat of gures are stiffer. Eggs weak because of fear that the government crop report would show an improved condi-tion of the new crop. The September de-livery closed with a net loss of 14 5 %. Cro is up a shade and cats 1/2. Provisions are off a shade to 10c.
